The carnivorous lion symbolizes the Alpha Animal in a "social"-system. In Economy these are often trend-setters that make the followers buy things they don't need. Staying in your circle of equal aged people would be much more satisfying.

Use Cases

As a bedside carpet, to sweep dirt under the carpet (note, hopefully this picture represents a faux fur lion, so no animal had to die according to the data of the photographer)

laurel wreath

Year ???

Inventor ???
A laurel wreath is a wreath made of branches and leaves of the laurel (latin laurus). The laurel wreath is a symbol and an insignia for a special honor or distinction, for a victory (eg. killing sheep or christians) or a special success. So to say the special super-duper superman hero say: fame -> inappropriate pride -> fall

Use Cases

To compensate low self-esteem (object fixation) with this once-received laurel wreath. About as Intelligent as using always the one and same One-Time-Pad fool's cap

Year ???

Inventor ???
In the Middle Ages a fool or a Tor (german: töricht = foolish) was the person, who entertained the royal household and was dressed mostly strange. The term "tool" also refers to persons who are very immature, stupid, clumsy, biased, prejudiced, ignorant, and who are based on their ignorance as scholars, theoretically.

Use Cases

Kings (crown) often do not want to look in the mirror => mistakes, so the fool try to show the king his own stupidity without being killed (jester's licence)
